

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

THE WORLD'S TOP FIRMS OF 2023 ARE RECOGNISED IN PRESTIGIOUS AWARDS

The M&A Today Global Awards 2023 winners

20th April, 2023.

Despite a tumultuous global economic landscape, the winners of this year's M&A Today Global Awards have managed to surge ahead and break boundaries. It is an impressive feat that merits grateful appreciation - our business leaders and visionaries exemplify fantastic achievements in spite of extraordinary challenges.

The M&A Today Global Awards are an ambitious endeavour, with the goal of recognizing and celebrating those who excel on a global scale. Through highlighting success stories that reach over 538,000 CEOs, CFOs and other professionals in 163 countries worldwide, these awards provide inspiring role models for others to learn from - as well as insightful knowledge about firms leading their industries across multiple domains. By bringing successful ventures into focus each year through this program of recognition and celebration the M&A Today Global Awards strives to bring out excellence among its readership base everywhere.

The M&A Today Global Awards have been honouring the world's most exemplary organisations for years, and this year's winners are no exception. A meticulous selection process involves evaluating a wide array of criteria to ensure that only truly deserving recipients are recognised - setting an industry benchmark for distinction and excellence across multiple fields.

Complexity: Winning firms must consistently showcase their expertise in tackling intricate projects with unrivalled excellence. By going above and beyond expectations, they will demonstrate the calibre of work that earns acclaim from top industry professionals.

Strategy: By diligently executing their strategic vision, many organisations have been able to produce remarkable changes in their industries - whether they be local or spanning the globe. Such successes are worthy of celebration and admiration.

Innovation: Revolutionizing operations to inject unprecedented value into client projects, your teams push boundaries and produce exceptional results.

The M&A Today Global awards program is a highly selective recognition, forging an exclusive union of the industry's most stellar organisations. Each contestant must adhere to exacting criteria determined by both self-submission and nomination from third parties, after which they are worthy candidates for evaluation under the keen eye of specialised judges picked for their field's insight. Subsequently opened to readership vote with its own unique analytical methodology determining winners in each category - those selected will be celebrated as emblematic examples of excellence among peers.

Amidst unprecedented hardship, businesses have responded admirably armed with resilience and creativity. Editor in Chief Richard Baker celebrates these exemplary organisations who persevered through the challenges of 2020 - pushing boundaries to best serve their customers and earning full operational success by utilizing new technologies.

ENDS

Contact Information

Press Contact: Richard Baker, Editor in Chief

Tel: +44 203 291 3493

Address:

EMG Publishing Limited
The Colmore Building
20 Colmore Circus Queensway
Birmingham
B4 6AT
United Kingdom

Web: www.emgpublishinggroup.com

Company Information

EMG Publishing Limited is a world-renowned publishing house, producing some of the globe's most coveted award programs. Known for recognising and celebrating excellence, the firm's readership covers 163 countries across six continents. Leading firms and professionals are celebrated for their accomplishments within their respective fields and presented as examples to their peers. Each of EMG Publishing's award programs comprises a unique, proprietary selection process and ranking method. Only the worthiest winners are chosen, based on their domestic and international work, according to a comprehensive set of criteria. Judging processes focus strongly on the complexity and strategic significance of work conducted, underlining the importance of the recognition each winner is receiving as an organisation, firm or individual.

EMG Publishing Limited aims to provide a benchmark of the very best industry leaders, exemplary teams and distinguished organisations. With a focus on recognising strategy and innovation through its award programs, EMG seeks to drive entrepreneurial spirit and continual improvement, for the benefit of organisations and their clients across the globe.